Situated on Market Way in Pinchbeck, this 1930s bay-fronted home is offered for sale for the first time since 1978. The property retains lovely character features, including original porch tiling and wood cladding in the entrance hall. Outside, there's a generous frontage with ample parking and a single garage. To the rear, the particularly large garden has been thoughtfully divided into different areas, with a generous lawn, well-established trees and planting, as well as a useful vegetable patch.

Internally, the property offers a well-flowing layout, with two excellent-sized reception rooms providing plenty of living and entertaining space. The kitchen is compact yet practical, with the added benefit of a handy pantry.

Upstairs, there are two excellent-sized double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom enjoying a lovely bay window overlooking the front, alongside a traditional third bedroom and a large family bathroom.

Having been lovingly maintained by the same vendors since 1978, this is a home that has clearly been cared for while retaining the character and charm that makes properties of this era so appealing.

Properties on Market Way rarely come to the market, making this a particularly exciting opportunity to purchase a characterful 1930s home in one of Pinchbeck's most desirable locations. A property with genuine charm, generous outside space and plenty of potential, this is certainly one not to be missed.
